I hereby make my application for membership with the Nakamura Judo Club and upon acceptance I sincerely pledge to obey all the rules and regulations that are set for the purpose of keeping order and maintaining discipline in the Nakamura Judo Club and for the protection of its members and staff from injury. I clearly recognize and accept that a risk is involved in the study of this martial art which requires strict adherence to these rules and regulations, which have been completely understood by me, and my parent or guardians (where applicable), or any beneficiaries. Anyone under the age of 18 will require acceptance of these terms by a parent or guardian as well. In consideration of accepting my application for entry into the Nakamura Judo Club, I hereby release all Owners, Head Instructors, all other Instructors, Members, Authorized Guests, and Affiliated Organizations from all responsibility and all claims for injuries I may receive while practicing or as a result of practicing martial art techniques, parents or guardians (where applicable), or beneficiaries of the applicant request that the application be accepted, and in consideration agree to indemnify and hold harmless and release the Nakamura Judo Club academy, and staff of the Nakamura Judo Club, Owners, Head Instructors, all other Instructors, Members, Authorized Guests, and Affiliated Organizations from all responsibility and all claims for injuries made on behalf of the injured party. In consideration of accepting my application for entry into the Nakamura Judo Club, I and/or my parents or guardians (where applicable) or beneficiaries of the applicant hereby release and hold harmless all institutions that have provided space for the purpose of practice, demonstrations or any other activities pertaining to martial arts as taught by the Nakamura Judo Club. In addition, it is agreed in all cases that the Nakamura Judo Club will be indemnified and held harmless from any claims made by me, or on behalf of myself by my parents or guardians (where applicable) or beneficiaries for any injuries sustained while attempting to perform any self defence act outside the domain of the Nakamura Judo Club Classroom setting.
